

Cheshire Claims 2021 SCC Girls Golf Championship

Stratford, CT - The Cheshire girls golf team won their first Southern Connecticut Conference championship on Wednesday, June 2 at Oronoque Country Club in Stratford.

The Rams were led by co-medalist Mia Hidalgo, who fired an 83. She was joined by Amity's Ava Gross who shot the same score.

Cheshire shot a team score of 373 strokes.

Lauralton Hall's Bailey McGuigan shot an 87, while Sydney Hidalgo added an 88 to aid the Rams title-winning score. Those were the only players to break 90.

In the team competition, Amity finished 10 shots behind, followed by Lauralton Hall and Hand.
